

Hi-Fi Hangover – High Energy Rock

Hi-Fi Hangover exploded onto the scene in 2010 and have gained a reputation as one of Nebraska's most sought after and respected live acts – attracting ever-increasing numbers of fans that demand the best. Renowned for insane guitar, thunderous percussion, pile driving bass riffs and off the hook vocals Hi-Fi Hangover has become one of the top draws in the Omaha Metro and the premier event band in the region.

Hi-Fi Hangover is comprised of some of the top musical talent in the Midwest. Each member brings years of precision, passion and professionalism to the fray – ensuring that every show will be a night to remember. Hi-Fi Hangover's shows are crafted to get the party started and keep it going from the first chord through the breathless finale and feature a breadth of music guaranteed to please every taste from beat-driven dance tunes to the best of classic and contemporary rock.

Hi-Fi Hangover is the first and only Omaha Band to be sponsored by Coors Light. This partnership between Nebraska's most refreshing beer and Omaha's hottest band is a true testament to Hi-Fi Hangover's commitment to quality and strong partnerships with their sponsor, venues and audience.

Booking availability changes rapidly - if you are interested in bringing the very best live music to your venue, corporate or private event, street dance, fair or festival then do not hesitate! Contact the band's agent to inquire about booking Hi-Fi Hangover for your entertainment needs.
